About the Author Susan Walker grew up in the large city of Vancouver, BC. She is a loving wife and a mother of 6 children. Susan also runs a daycare center in Northern Vancouver, in which she opened in 1996. Susan obtained an associate degree in child care through the University of British Columbia. She graduated with high honors in 1993. Since then she has raised her children and gone on to open her own daycare in 1996. The daycare has become very successful. Susan believes in positive parenting techniques and she applies these techniques each and every day with the children in her daycare. Susan found that over the years many parents would ask her for tips and advice on parenting. She decided to write some books on the most common parenting topics, in hopes that you will find her books to be helpful in addressing common issues many parents face today with small children.
