Mary Engelbreit : Mary Engelbreit's Art of Paper Crafting: and Scrapbooking Kit before purchasing it in order to gage whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised Mary Engelbreit's Art of Paper Crafting: and Scrapbooking Kit:

I was really excited when I found this product as I scrapbook and would be able to make my own holiday/birthday/occasion cards as well. The designs and pictures are traditional ME and adorable, good variety of holidays and patterns, and bright colors. However, there are maybe a dozen sticker sheets and die cuts, 3 small ribbons, and the remainder of the photos, designs, frames, and picture corners are on super thin flimsy paper. It would have been fine if the photos and patterns were on this paper, however photo corners, tags, borders, and frames are also on this paper which requires the user to cut it all out. How tedious! And on paper only a step up from tissue paper to boot! I honestly doubt I will use any of the photo corners, tags, or flourishes, simply because of the precision cutting that will be involved. The patterned paper and photos will have to be backed with card stock to be useable. Overall, adorable but flimsy.1 of 1 people found the following review helpful. pretty patterns, but...By BethI was so excited when I saw this product was available. However, I was EXTREMELY disappointed when I opened the box to see the quality of the paper. The patterns were great, lots of choices, and the stickers and chipboards were nice. But, the paper is so thin and glossy! I tried to make a card this morning and the paper wrinkled and tore and would not hold the ink from a stamp. I am sure I will use it, since I have it, but I was very disappointed in the quality.0 of 0 people found the following review helpful. Mary Engelbreit's Art of Paper Crafting: and Scrapbooking KitBy WintergreenThis has a lot more in it than noted in the description. We are using Mary Englebreit's graphics to be the theme for my cousin's daughter's baby shower this month. The new mom always loved ME as a child and now her children will also love it. She will be surprised at all the graphics we used for the baby shower. I think the grown ups had just as much fun using Mary's beautiful graphics making things for the shower! This had a lot more in the box than I ever thought and again very reasonably priced.
