There werw some really tough questions that started some good talking points. She really seemed to enjoy getting to learn about me. I got to tell her things that honest I would have never thought of. It brought us closer by doing a few pages now and then.0 of 0 people found the following review helpful. Four StarsBy Delfina MonrealBought these for my grandchildren to fill out with their parents.

Kids can learn all about Mom's life and create special memories with a keepsake scrapbook journal. The book includes a passcode to an activity website where they can create scrapbook pages, play video games, send messages, and enjoy relationship-building activities. Mom's School Years What did you do after school? What was your absolute favorite thing to do in the whole world? Did you have a best friend in elementary school? What kinds of things did you do together? This expandable keepsake journal is an opportunity for children to learn about Mom's life and create their own special memories. Inside is an easy Q and A format for kids to follow, plus a secret passcode to the RB Kids' Club website where they can create their own scrapbook pages, download borders and clip art, play interactive video games, send cards, and earn reward points by doing activities with Mom. This is relationship-building at its best. Pages can be added or taken out of this durable journal, which is bound to become a family keepsake. Ages 7 to 12.
