I make soap and said aloud after many pages "I want to make that soap!". I think this book is a great way to show the world that natural, handmade soaps are a much better alternative to commercial products. Many stunning photos in the book as well.0 of 0 people found the following review helpful. Great design inspiration for all natural soapsBy TiaGreat design inspiration if you're an all natural soaper. The soapers here from around the world are an amazingly talented group - I didn't think it was possible to achieve such great colors and designs with just herbs and clays as colorants but somehow, these Artisans did it. Congratulations on a great book!0 of 0 people found the following review helpful. Great bookBy Ariane ArsenaultGreat book! My soaps are featured in it book as well as many other soap makers from around the world! Yay!

Welcome to the first international gallery of artisan soaps that represents Australia, Canada, India, Italy, Jamaica, Romania, Trinidad and the United States. These 26 artists from the Natural Soap Forum on Facebook are being showcased for their inventive use of natural ingredients within their soaping creations. Whether you are just starting out or an old pro, the beautiful artisan soaps that are presented within these pages will hopefully inspire and motivate you. We invite you to browse through these pages and to reach out to the individual artists that spark your creativity. As part of our effort to provide you with the tools to work your creative soaping magic, we have included a resource page near the end of this book. This page identifies the various sources that our 26 artists use to locate the ingredients and tools for making their soaps. Please take a look at the resource page and also visit us in the Natural Soap Forum at www.facebook.com/groups/Naturalsoapforum/.
